

UNC-Chapel Hill Conference Description Form

Please fill out this form to add UNC-Chapel Hill symposia or conferences to the approved list of events that count toward the Carolina Research Scholar Program. You can find a list of currently approved courses and the requirements at <http://our.unc.edu/students/crsp/approved-unc-based-symposia/>. Please email completed forms to our@unc.edu.

---

What is the title of the conference?

What is the purpose of the conference?

Is this conference organized annually?                      Yes                      No

Is attendance at this conference open to the campus community or the general public?                      Yes                      No

Do student presenters engage in an oral presentation of their research that is at least 10 minutes long or present their research at a poster session?                      Yes                      No

Do students have an opportunity to discuss their research with other students, presenters, or audience members?                      Yes                      No

How many students have presented or will present at this year's conference?                      How many undergraduates, not including presenters, are expected to attend?

How many faculty, staff, or members of the general public attended/are expected to attend the conference?

Has/will the conference been advertised broadly to the UNC-CH community?                      Yes                      No

Additional Information

---

Who are the presenters at this conference? (select all that apply)

- undergraduates from a single class
- undergraduates from a single department
- honors students
- other (non-undergraduate student) speakers