The Untold History of the Bullock Family

As a part of the Descendants Project class, which is oriented around conducting ethnographic research on victims of racial violence in North Carolina, our group specifically focused on finding information about and descendants of Subet/Susie Bullock and Martha/Margaret Bullock. Our poster showcases the process and struggles we encountered while researching, the results of our genealogical research, and our overall conclusions as this class has come to a close.